There are certain rules of conduct that should be followed on the golf course. These rules include:

*

- Be respectful of the course. Do not damage the greens, tees, or bunkers. Replace your divots and smooth out any ball marks. *

- Be respectful of other players. Do not talk or move while others are playing. Let faster players play through, and do not hold up the group behind you. *
- Be respectful of yourself. Do not get angry or frustrated if you make a bad shot. Focus on the next shot and have fun.

There are also certain dress code requirements that should be followed on the golf course. These requirements vary from course to course, but generally speaking, you should dress in a way that is appropriate for the occasion.

- For men, this usually means a collared shirt and dress pants. Shorts are also acceptable on some courses. *
- For women, this usually means a skirt, dress, or slacks. Skirts and dresses should be of an appropriate length.

It is important to keep a good pace of play when golfing. This means playing at a speed that allows you to finish your round in a reasonable amount of time. The following tips can help you keep a good pace of play:

*

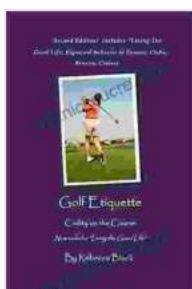

- Be ready to play when it is your turn. *
- Do not take unnecessary practice swings. *
- Do not spend too much time looking for lost balls. *

- Let faster players play through.
