Synopsis

After leading a miserable and unfulfilling life as a 34-year-old unemployed man, a NEET, the protagonist finds himself reincarnated into a world of magic and swords. However, he does not reincarnate as a powerful hero or a noble, but as a baby named Rudeus Greyrat. Despite carrying the memories and experiences of his former life, Rudeus must learn to adapt to his new world and navigate its complexities from the very beginning.

In this new life, Rudeus is born to a kind and loving family and surrounded by a cast of colorful and endearing characters. However, he soon discovers that his perverted tendencies and social anxiety from his previous life persist, creating challenges in his new existence. As Rudeus grows older, he encounters various obstacles and trials, including bullying, self-doubt, and the consequences of his past actions. He realizes that his past mistakes follow him even into this new world, and he must confront them in order to achieve redemption and growth.

Despite his struggles, Rudeus is determined to make the most of his second chance at life. He diligently studies magic and swordsmanship, and with the support of his family and friends, he begins to overcome his shortcomings and forge a new path for himself. Along the way, Rudeus meets mentors and companions who help him grow as a person and find acceptance.
