Nicholas is a handsome and charming prince, but he is also arrogant and aloof. He is not interested in marrying Ella, and he makes it clear that he will never love her.

Despite the obstacles, Ella is determined to win Nicholas's heart. She knows that he is a good man, and she believes that she can make him fall in love with her.

As Ella and Nicholas spend more time together, they begin to see each other in a new light. Nicholas realizes that Ella is a beautiful and intelligent woman, and he finds himself drawn to her charm and wit.

Ella, in turn, realizes that Nicholas is not as cold and heartless as she originally thought. He is a kind and compassionate man, and he cares deeply for his people.

As their relationship deepens, Ella and Nicholas face many challenges. They must overcome the prejudices of the court, the machinations of their enemies, and the weight of their own expectations.

But through it all, they learn to trust each other and to rely on each other. And in the end, they find the love that they have always been searching for.

The Paper Princess Novel The Royals is a well-written and engaging novel that will appeal to fans of royal romances, Cinderella stories, and tales of love and redemption.
