Author's Note

I wrote The Moon Stealers and the Children of the Light as a story of hope for young people. In a world that can often feel dark and hopeless, I wanted to create a story that would remind readers that even in the darkest of times, there is always hope. The Children of the Light are a group of ordinary teenagers who achieve extraordinary things through their courage, determination, and friendship. I hope that their story will inspire young people to believe in themselves and to never give up on their dreams.
